

A Very Special VIP Coming to Pembroke!

The City of Pembroke and its esteemed partners are proud to welcome Barbara Coloroso, international bestselling author, speaker and consultant on parenting, teaching, school discipline, positive school climate, bullying, grieving, nonviolent conflict resolution and restorative justice.

Barbara Coloroso, from Kids Are Worth It Inc, appeared on Oprah, CBC, CTV, Global, CBS, NBC, ABC, CNN, and NPR and has been featured in the New York Times, Time, U.S. News & World Report, Newsweek, Globe and Mail, The National Post and other national and international publications

Agenda

(All events free)

7 March 2017 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm Knights of Columbus Hall (170 Ellis Ave, K8A 2H9): Not Facing Issues Is Creating Crisis: Strategies for parents to create, and keep communication lines open with their children. (Get tickets at EventBrite.ca)

8 March 12:30 to 1:30 pm PEM ICE 2 (40 Bennett St K8A 7Z8): How To Spoil The Grandkids Without Rotting Them To The Core, A Seniors That Sizzle Lunch & Learn event

8 March 2:30 pm to 4:30 pm—PEM ICE 2: Caregivers Workshop - An ounce of prevention... A holistic approach to prevent issues from becoming a crisis in schoolchildren (Get tickets at EventBrite.ca)

8 March 6:00 pm to 8:00 Best Western Inn and Conference Center :Special Guest at the International Woman’s Day Event Hosted by the Bernadette McCann House

Maison Columbus House

Conseil des écoles publiques de l'Est de l'Ontario